Consider the following points: 1- regarding "paper quality" it is very good quality. 2- regarding that every single has only 1 picture, is also another good thing. 3- but, the most important thing the quality of the picture itself.. is a disaster.. bad bad bad by all the means. They are not picture from (cars; the Disney movie, it has BMW and Suzuki cars!!!!!!) It looks like that the publisher took the picture from (google) and print it. SHOULD NOT sell things like this 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. COLORING BLISS By HONESTYGOOD BOOK FOR ADULT COLORING AND KEEPING KIDS HAPPY, GOOD GROUP ACTIVITY. Cars is a 2006 American computer-animated comedy-adventure film produced by Pixar Animation Studios and released by Walt Disney Pictures. Directed and co-written by John Lasseter, it is Pixar's final independently-produced motion picture before its purchase by Disney. Set in a world populated entirely by anthropomorphic cars and other vehicles, the film stars the voices of Owen Wilson, Paul Newman (in his final non-documentary feature), Bonnie

Hunt, Larry the Cable Guy, Tony Shalhoub, Cheech Marin, Michael Wallis, George Carlin, Paul Dooley, Jenifer Lewis, Guido Quaroni, Michael Keaton, Katherine Helmond and John Ratzenberger. Race car drivers Dale Earnhardt, Jr., Mario Andretti, Michael Schumacher and car enthusiast Jay Leno (as "Jay Limo") voice themselves. Cars premiered on May 26, 2006 at Lowe's Motor Speedway in Concord, North Carolina and was theatrically released on June 9, 2006 to mostly positive reviews from critics. It was nominated for two Academy Awards including Best Animated Feature, and won the Golden Globe Award for Best Animated Feature Film. The film was released on DVD on November 7, 2006 and on Blu-ray Disc in 2007. The film was accompanied by the short One Man Band for its theatrical and home media releases. Merchandise based on the film (including scale models of several of the cars) broke records for retail sales of merchandise based on a Disney/Pixar film, bringing an estimated $10 billion for 5 years after the film's release. The film was dedicated to Joe Ranft, who was killed in a car accident during the film's production.
