6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Utterly cool! By LadyThis is absolutely fun and gross and your kids will be sure to love experimenting with each 'recipe.' I am especially looking forward to Halloween this year and will definitely make the edible doo-dos for the kids. I can't think of a book better suited for this time of year - except spring for April Fool's Day. Each project is kid tested, safe and fun. The ingredients are handy and easily found at the grocery store. Everyone can do this! Make fake blood, fake vomit, fake cuts and scrapes, fake scars, fake rotting skin and tons more - you will be amazed. Utterly cool!

Parents, beware of this book. With 100% Pure Fake, the art of scaring the pants off friends and family reaches new levels of ease and sophistication. Pranksters can now amaze, alarm and totally disgust everyone with these easy-to-make Pure Fakes. These 25 safe, kid-tested recipes that can be made with ingredients found in most households, including corn syrup, rolled oats, makeup and pasta. Other ingredients, such as school glue, food coloring, tempera paint and gelatin, are widely available in grocery or craft stores. Each project is presented with step-by-step instructions and includes warnings for allergy and mess alerts, non-edible and edible projects, and when kids should get adult help. A few 100% Pure Fakes: Rotting Skin * Eggs, oats and other ingredients give kids a putridly convincing case of rotting skin. S'not Snot * Gelatin, food coloring and other ingredients create slimy matter dripping from noses? 100% pure disgusting. Chocolate Milk Spill * White school glue, brown tempera paint and other ingredients make a life-like spill that will deceive and annoy to the max!

With its sassy text, goofy cartoons, and enticing color grossout photos, this is a must-have that's bound to be returned with the sticky evidence of success. Multiple copies would be a wise investment. Middle-school pranksters will rub their hands together with glee over this wonderfully revolting how-to-book of fake bodily fluids and more.
