Barberelli : 101 Nice Things About Adolf Hitler before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 101 Nice Things About Adolf Hitler:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Margaret FranceI thought this book was a great gift.

Every day kids, college students, and adults are being manipulated, brainwashed, and indoctrinated by corrupt teachers, politicians, and their celebrity puppets, including an inept media, into thinking and believing that Adolf Hitler, Joseph Stalin, Mao Zedong aka Mao Tse-tung, Benito Mussolini, among other worldly deranged politicians, were somehow "great humanitarians" and "influential leaders." This is complete utterly nonsense to anyone with half a brain. They were downright murderers who murdered and tortured millions of their own people. There are no true purposeful reasons for committing inhumane actions; murder, to achieve some worthy goal. There is no "fight for freedom" or "revolution" but a strategically planned act of genocide using a controlled and manipulated society as puppets in their personal quest for power, by playing God, to "cleanse the earth of filth" and "rid of the undesirables." Why didn't they just take up golf? Besides the dedication page, informational page, and quote, this book is COMPLETELY BLANK. One lesson that needs to be taught to today's society is that there is nothing nice to say about this monster. Collect the whole series sold separately - Hitler, Mao, Stalin, Mussolini.

About the Author Barberelli is a Wife and Mother. They have two rambunctious cats named Socks and Oatmeal, and seven ferocious dinosaurs named Rex. Barberelli's favorite literary writing genre is Realistic Fiction because she is committed to writing stories that are designed to convey some truth and moral lessons with the intent to improve humanity, as in her heartfelt, morbid, and tragic book Disgraceful Humans: Monsters Aren't Born - They're Made. She dedicates most of her time to family, and also enjoys consulting, gardening, eating chocolate, chasing frogs, toads, and lizards in her backyard, and photographing nature and animals - as you may find some of these photographs in her books such as Rescuing Henrietta: A cute little true story of humanity and friendship, Messages of Love to My Daughter: Poetic sentiment along with flower photographs, Love and Inspiration: Nature photos with inspirational messages and love, and What's For Lunch?: A fun and cute photo book for children of all ages! Barberelli is an extremely huge fan of a civilized society! This is why she wrote her book Common Sense Rules of Civility and Decent Behavior in Company and Conversation, filled with over 140 rules to bring back polite, reasonable, and respectful behavior, and to abandon barbarism and chaos in the sewer where it belongs. She has received numerous awards, including The Best Smile Award in the 5th Grade, The Greatest Mother Ever Award, and a Lifetime Achievement Award from her husband. Before deciding to settle down to raise a family, she was a professional stand-up comedian.
