Hilarious!By rosietheI loved this book so much I actually gave it to my boss! He thought it was a trip and still keeps it in his desk to this day!

We've all had them: from the idle and the incompetent, to the demanding and borderline psychopathic, to the weird and creepy, to the plain idiotic; anyone who has ever worked will have had a moment when all they want to do is grab their boss by the neck and..."101 Ways to Kill Your Boss" is a chance to let go of those moments of rage and frustration and laugh. A gleeful exploration of those darker moments we'd all much rather Not have, but all do, it is sure to be the humour bestseller of 2007.

About the AuthorGraham Roumieu is a model employee at Headline. He seems to enjoy sitting quietly in his cubicle drawing his little pictures and weeping softly to himself. Before giving it all up to pursue exciting career opportunities at Headline, Graham worked as a freelance illustrator and writer. His clients included The New York Times, Harper's Magazine, The Wall Street Journal and Disney amongst many others. Graham is also the creator of the mildly popular books IN ME OWN WORDS: THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF BIGFOOT and ME WRITE BOOK: IT BIGFOOT MEMOIR. Keep in mind that speaking to Graham of his past is strictly prohibited at Headline.
