From Sourcebooks, Inc. : 2008 George W. Bush Out of Office Countdown Boxed Calendar before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 2008 George W. Bush Out of Office Countdown Boxed Calendar:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Stupidity at its Best, One Day at a Time! By Geary E. Statham This is great calendar to commemorate the end of the Bush Presidency. Many people know Bush has said and done stupid things but you get direct quotes of pure stupidity. It's hard to believe he actually said some of the things contained in the calendar. This product will keep you laughing all the way into the next presidency. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good riddance W By Jim V. Thanks for destroying the economy George. It's been tough for a lot of folks since you and your pals got their hands on the keys to the White House 12 of 13 people found the following review helpful. Counting Down to the End of an Error By Frederick S. Goethel This is a standard sized desk calendar in the "one a day" format. Each page contains the days left until W is gone, a Bushism (his bizarre quotes) and the date and day. It starts with January 1, 2008 and ends on his last day in office. The calendar is funny, and is a wonderful gift for anyone who can't wait until this reign of insanity is over.

Now a daily, too! He's doing a heck of a job, but hang in there-it's almost over! Much of the nation has been counting the days since the first inauguration of the president who said, "If this were a dictatorship, it'd be a heck of a lot easier, just so long as I'm the dictator." Yes, there is hope-and now you can count down the days while enjoying:- The best of Bush bloopers and blunders- The indictments, scandals, embarrassments and audacity of the president's advisors, admirers (think Harriet), cronies, appointees (see "cronies") and strange bedfellows.

From the Back Cover "In terms of timetables, as quickly as possible, whatever that means."-George W. Bush Now, as quickly as possible, you too can count down the days to the very end of W's dubious reign ... hang in there, it's almost over! About the Author Deb Werksman was the publisher and co-founder of The Quayle Quarterly, a political satire magazine. Werksman has been interviewed on hundreds of radio shows and on such national media as the Phil Donahue Show, Dick Cavett, CBS This Morning, NPR, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, The LA Times, all the newswires, and People Magazine. When Quayle left the White House, Werksman went on to become an editorial manager at Sourcebooks, where she has edited such books as You Know You're a Republican/Democrat if... and the forthcoming How to Win a Fight with a Conservative. She is the editor of the George W. Bush Out of Office Countdown calendar and handbook, and says "W., you're doing a heck of a job." Excerpt. © Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved.
