informative and funny

From the ten products that could save your dog's life to your dog's ten most embarrassing habits, this book of tips, advice, and anecdotes will help anyone to better understand and care for their dog. It's time for the creature we describe as our "best friend" to receive more careful attention and recognition of his/her sterling qualities. This revision reflects the latest in doggie knowledge and products, and answers such timeless questions as: Should you vacuum your dog? What can dogs hear, smell, and see-and should they watch TV? How do I give my dogs pills, brush their teeth, and perform other tough tasks without losing their love? And much much more...at least 277 fun facts and helpful hints for dog owners around the world.

.com Admit it. Your dog has done a few things over time that made you cringe and hope no one was looking, right? This is an entertaining book with tips, advice, and anecdotes. You'll find the 10 most embarrassing things dogs do, the 10 products that can save your dog's life, and much information to help you understand and care for your canine friends. "If you spend much time surfing the canine web or reading doggie information, in no time you'll discover a sameness in topics. You may start to wonder if there's anything new to be read on dogs. Just as ho-humness starts to sink in, grab 277 SECRETS YOUR DOG WANTS YOU TO KNOW."-Caninetimes.com
