By Hilda G. I was excited to put this calendar on my desk and start my days off with a nice laugh from a bad joke. I was very disappointed when I got it because these are not bad jokes...they are the worst jokes you will ever hear in your life. They don't even make any sense! Even the jokes on laffy taffy wrappers are funnier and those are submitted by children! The puns are especially bad. I wish I could return it and get another page a day calendar that will stimulate my mind a bit more.

By Pelagicus I'm very disappointed in this calendar. I'm an avid devotee of bad jokes and puns, even ones painfully so, and the bigger the groan the more I like it. But most of the jokes in this anthology are not even funny. Occasionally I'll run across one that tickles my funny bone, or that I haven't heard before, but those are around 40% at most, which is why I'm giving it two stars. It was not a total waste of money, and I'll keep it for the year, but I don't plan on buying another one from this publishing house next year.

By Lindsey I got this for a gift for my sister on Christmas for her office. Our family enjoys some rather cheesy jokes so this was right up my sisters ally! I thought that this would make a good gift to her for stressful days at the office, or as a convo starter for when she is interviewing people. Lastly, this page a day calendar is office friendly :)

What did the chickpea say when she had a stomachache? I falafel. Celebrating 35 years of guffaws, groans, and belly laughs! Now boasting a brand-new name, 308 Really Bad Jokes + 57 Hilarious Puns delivers a year of jokes that are so bad, they're hilarious. Packed with lawyer jokes, knock-knocks, doctor jokes, guy-walks-into-a-bar jokes, and more, it's family-friendly fun. How many police officers does it take to change a lightbulb? None. It always turns itself in.
