As essential to the fan as the daily sports page, 365 Sports Facts-A-Year brings on the rivalries, the camaraderie, the excitement of game day, and the thrill of cheering on your favorite team. Every day, relive a pivotal play, no-holds-barred battle, or history-making event. In his last U.S. Open appearance, Andre Agassi rallies from two sets down to defeat James Blake in an epic five-set quarterfinal. The Steelers pull away from the Rams to take Super Bowl XIV—and become the first-ever four-time winners. Plus Sonja Henie triples Olympic gold, George Foreman roars back, and NFL coach Tom Coughlin explains his job: "Coaching is making players do what they don't want to do so that they can become what they want to become."
