Justin Racz : 50 Bosses Worse Than Yours before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 50 Bosses Worse Than Yours:

True, these bosses are definitely worse than mine.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Really DisappointingBy RI bought this book as a gift and it is so lame that I couldn't even give it to them. Basically this isn't a true book. I could have written it myself in one hour if I had to. All this book has is a picture of a "boss" on one side and 5 sentences describing what it would be like to work for that particular person. These are not true stories, these are just "what if" situations. I can't even believe so many people gave this a good rating. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Hmm....By Lori Hopp This is a tough one to review. I have worked for many of the bosses listed in the book and it was difficult to write about it in my blog because some might recognize themselves. It was a good, light-hearted read, but it also brought back some very, very bad memories. A good read, nonetheless!

Satirist Justin Racz, author of the wildly successful 50 Jobs Worse Than Yours, returns to the world of cubicles, water coolers, and boardrooms—this time targeting the workingman's ultimate nemesis: his boss. From the bullies to the bureaucrats to the bunglers, bosses are as unavoidable as they are insufferable. Thankfully, 50 Bosses Worse Than Yours is here to remind us that no matter how bad we think we have it, there are worse people to be taking orders from. Including entries such as "Condescending Rita," "Enforced After-Work Drinks Proposer," "Ten Years Younger Than You and Makes Double Your Salary," and the original bad boss, "Your Dad," this book presents the most unbearable, cruel-intentioned, and mind-bogglingly incompetent employers ever to pass through Human Resources.

“Take this humorous tour of the world's worst work.” ?Entertainment Weekly “Justin Racz has done a tremendous service to us all with 50 Jobs Worse Than Yours, a work probably best kept on your job site for bad days.” ?Chicago Tribune
