before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Paint by Sticker Masterpieces: Re-create 12 Iconic Artworks One Sticker at a Time!:

This is relaxing, not messy, and in the end you feel like you created art! I plan to laminate some of my best pieces and hang them. I see many folks commenting about how the sticker pieces aren't cut out perfectly. It's supposed to look like a mosaic puzzle in the end, and that's the beauty of it. Use tweezers to help positioning and sticking of the stickers, especially the small ones. In fact, I use tweezers the whole time. It helps with precision if you're a perfectionist such as myself. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great gift idea By Stefanie Hutson I bought this for my 5-year-old nephew, and it was very well-received. As an adult, I loved the vibrant colors and recognizable artworks, but I worried it would be too detailed for tiny fingers. It turned out to be just fine, though. The child in question gets in a lot of LEGO time, and has no trouble manipulating small things. If your child still struggles with that, though, you might consider one of the simpler paint-by-sticker titles. There are some made just for kids. Overall, this is a really fun idea and it makes a great, cheap gift. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Not for perfectionists! But still lovely. By Colleen I really enjoyed this, a nice mindless activity with a pretty end result, but probably not the best idea if you are OCD, as the stickers don't fit exactly perfect. YOU WILL HAVE WHITE SPACES. I really wish that the background was some how able to fill in these gaps, but I still enjoyed it.
