I have purchased three so far, and each one is unique in it's own special way. It is very relaxing to simply peel and stick and see a colorful picture emerge before your eyes. The book is very sturdy, so you do not need anything hard to press down on (I often do it in my lap), and the pages (stickers and images) are all perforated, and very easy to remove. I've never had a page rip while tearing it out.I did have to deduct one star because occasionally the stickers are difficult to remove as some of the cuts are not complete, causing the sticker to rip (see attached photo for example). But I did find a good solution. If you have an exacto knife, or even a sharp box cutter, just run it lightly along the edges of the problematic stickers, and they will pop right out. Just be careful not to cut your fingers!

That said, now that other sticker by number products have come out, this one I had issues with the stickers not completely being able to be removed (so they rip) and there seems to be more space between the stickers that shows no matter how careful you are. Makes it a little disappointing with such great pictures. Still fun but would like them to fix these issues before buying any other in series they publish.

Paint by Sticker is the most exciting new idea in activity books, both for grown-ups and kids. A compelling activity for crafters and artists, doodlers and colorers of all ages, each Paint by Sticker book includes everything you need to create twelve vibrant, full-color "paintings." The original images are rendered in low-poly, a computer graphics style using geometric polygon shapes to create a 3D effect. As in paint-by-number, each template is divided into dozens of spaces, each with a number that corresponds to a particular sticker. Find the sticker, peel it, and place it in the right space. Add the next, and the next, and the next—it's an activity that's utterly absorbing, both in the pleasure of peeling and sticking and the growing satisfaction of watching a "painting" come to life, emerging from a flat black-and-white illustration to a dazzling image with color, body, and spirit.

Paint by Sticker: Music Icons brings us face-to-face with Elvis, The Beatles, Beyoncé, David Bowie, Cher, Prince, Michael Jackson, Kurt Cobain, Madonna, Nina Simone, Dolly Parton, and "Weird Al" Yankovic.
