Great drawings and really clever hog related humor, ie. a takeoffs on American Gothic, Mona Lisa, Picasso etc. with hog figures and titles. Pigs presented as celebrities, sports figures and in parody. Get it for anyone who's a thinking man or woman porcine aficionado. Enjoy!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Francine PhilippeJust plain FUN!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Viva la Pig!!!By MaryD.A. Hammond is on to something with Pigs in a Poke. There's not a person that I've shown the book to that hasn't found it laugh-out-loud funny. The Creation of Ham is my personal favorite. It's hard to figure where D.A. Hammond comes up with his ideas. If it's "deswine inspiration" then I say, "Viva la Pig!" I can't wait to see what he comes up with in Collection # 2.

This is a wonderful collection of satirical and whimsical pigs in artwork created since 2003 by D. A. Hammond. 51 full color illustrations. Pigs are like people. People like pigs. People can be like pigs. Pigs like people, sometimes. Sometimes people and pigs just poke fun at each other. The oil pastels of D. A. Hammond are vibrant, rich and colorful. The same can be said about his sense of humor, if one wishes to be kind. Here are some excerpts from the extensive commentary and critical acclaim that Pigs ina Poke™ has received from noteworthy sources around the world: The use of earthy tones is mixed with an eclectic palette of bright primary colors in a way that reminds us of the Early Masters and the famous paintings that Neanderthal Swine scratched on the floors of the caves in southern France. The primal quality calls forth our primitive instincts while the sublime lifts us out of our daily mire so that, in mirth, we may commune with the angels.. -Sir Charles Swineburne, Pigtoria Albert Museum, London Once a ham, always a ham... -B.
