Bang on the Door! : Poo Jokebook before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Poo Jokebook:

Jokes that will run and run! THE ANTICIPATED FART: This one warns that it is back there waiting for some time before it arrives. A person who is uneasy for a time in a crowd and who later farts at a time when they think no one will notice has farted an Anticipated Fart. THE BACK SEAT FART: This is a fart that occurs only in cars. It is identified chiefly by pong. The Back Seat Fart can usually be concealed by traffic noise as it is an eased-out fart and not very loud. But its pong is foul and will give it away, due to the way air moves around in a car. And then someone will say, who farted in the back seat? Lists, jokes, riddles, stories - a crazy collection of rude jokes and bottom humour, for 7-adult everywhere!
