This book reminds me of being at a campfire with your friends and listening to everyone's crazy stories...except the fact that these stories are at least 200% better. The concept is great and the drawings are awesome. My niece kept asking me what was so funny...apparently I was laughing out loud more than I realized. Many of the stories are funny, some are sad, others just reflective. Planning on buying another copy as a gift for my graphic novel loving friend as I think he would appreciate it on many levels. You won't regret the purchase. :) 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. This is amazing! By Rosalind D. Bullard This book is amazing! The stories and illustrations are so good. Its hard to put down. I've decided this is the perfect Christmas present for friends and family. It's a fun gift that supports an artist. Highly recommended! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Post-it Note Diaries is a lot of fun By Lyamyam Great. Very clever. A lot of fun to read. I gave it as a gift to my son, and he is really enjoying it. I highly recommend it.

Personal stories from an all-star lineup-immortalized in beautiful, black Sharpie(r). When Arthur Jones cocreated a reading series centered around ubiquitous Post-Its(r), the series struck a chord. It grew in popularity and was ultimately featured on a This American Life live simulcast broadcast across the nation. Inspired by the series and spanning a wide and weird range of topics from an A-list roster of contributors, Post-It(r) Note Diaries captures everyday occurrences from a job interview gone hilariously awry and a nude run-in with a neighbor to hair-raising events like an overnight encounter at Nicholas Cage's house (it's not what you think!), and nearly drowning while trying to paddle across the East River in a homemade canoe. Post-It(r) Note Diaries is perfect for NPR addicts and fans of unique graphic favorites like Postsecret and Blankets. Diarists include: John Hodgman, David Rakoff, Hanna Tinti, Arthur Bradford, Chuck Klosterman, Andrew Solomon, Starlee Kine, Kristen Schaal, Mary Roach and Andrew Bird.
