Concerning the section Trees, I have been to the house and seen the trees. Therefore, I can imagine the man shooting the birds and the discord that followed. In the section, Do You Own a Rock?, I not only have seen the rock. I have also had my picture taken in front of it. Finally, in Delayed Recall, I not only understand but have the same problem. You see, the author and I have birthdays only days apart. I have not been to or participated in the other sections, but I have watched the author's life for a long time and know that what he says is heartfelt and true. One cannot go wrong with a purchase such as this book!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful spiritual BookBy CustomerThis book is so edifying. I would suggest it to everyone to read if you are having problems in your live. You will feel the spirit of God dwelling in Mr. Brady's words.

God gives each of us stories to tell. He teaches us life lessons through our everyday experiences. We have opportunities to take the lessons we have learned and share them with others to bring glory to God while encouraging our listeners to draw closer to Him. The telling about what God has taught us is our story. This book is a compilation of stories and devotions gleaned from the author's experiences as a middle school teacher, a preacher, and unfortunately, a sinner. In his unique voice the author has blended scripture with his stories to reveal the lessons God taught him. These experiences are not uncommon to any Christian who encounters people everyday and has children, grandchildren, or a spouse. Almost everyone will be able to relate to the stories in this book. Many of the selections will make you laugh while others are touching and heartwarming and will possibly bring a few tears. Preachers, Teachers and Other Sinners is an entertaining book. Of course not everyone is a preacher or a teacher, but all of us sin occasionally. This book was written with the purpose of directing the reader to a loving Savior who desires to draw all people to God no matter who they are.

About the AuthorThe author is a retired teacher and bi-vocational pastor. He received his undergraduate degree in Journalism. His graduate experience includes a Masters Degree in Counselor Education, a LDR in Special Education and he worked on his Masters of Divinity degree at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has also served a Hospice Chaplain, and a Director of Christian Education.
