Robert Ford : Puns and Verse before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Puns and Verse:

My name is Bob Ford. I'm sixty-two years old and work for Wal-Mart in McHenry, Illinois. I've been writing poetry for a long time, but in the last six years I've gotten serious about it. I'm a punster, so most of my poems are humorous.

I've also written poems about babies and pets and a few more serious poems. I hope you enjoy.
