Barbara Noel : Puns Intended before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Puns Intended:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. you have to be pretty knowledgable about the different topicsBy Esther YimThere were a a handful of puns you really had to think about before you understood the actual joke or the pun just didn't make sense at all. If you want to understand all of the puns, you have to be pretty knowledgable about the different topics. Personally, I found a couple good puns, but I think that there were more bad puns than good.

Enjoy for a cheesy, punny read.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Some fresh, new puns.By Rocket ScientistSome fresh, new puns. Some old groaners. Enjoyed it.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Interesting book as thoughtBy N. NgoThis book has most of the puns you would hear commonly and those others that you would not that make it intriguing to read. Entertaining.

Puns Intended is a collection of original puns that have been written over a span of fifty years and are a unique way to showcase the "lesser known" facts of life in a witty and humorous way. It is meant to be enjoyable and to allow one to sit back, relax, and get a kick out of this thing we call life. This book is good for reading at home and can also be used to pass the time in the waiting room of an airport, bus stop, or train depot. It is great to share with friends and family, has a wide variety of topics about things and people we see every day, and appeals to all age ranges. Kids will get a great chuckle out of the animal section, while senior citizens might enjoy the domestic scenes and entertainers more. Whether you're looking for a gut-busting joke or a subtle eye-roll that you simply have to pass on to others this book guarantees a laugh on every page, so start turning!

About the AuthorBarbara Noel is a legally blind 88-year-old widowed great-grandmother who wrote puns on a manual typewriter for over fifty years. She chose to share her puns with the world by publishing her first book as she always believed that someday her "prints" would come.
