Wanda Van : Queen: For Commanding Respect Whilst Touring Your Kingdom (Blue Q Mega Mini Kits)

before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Queen: For Commanding Respect Whilst Touring Your Kingdom (Blue Q Mega Mini Kits):

Pure-vegetable base bar and pocket-sized body mist in Queen's popular rose/gardenia scent, plus a 32-page Royal Decree Tablet for issuing edicts and compliments to one's loyal subjects. Fit for a King (but a dream for a Queen).

About the Author Rhonda Van writes computer game manuals and has contributed articles to The Motley Fool and various travel magazines. She also writes science fiction, and won a Pushcart Prize for one of her short stories. Rhonda lives in Northern California.
