I was able to meet the incredibly creative author, Renee. It's dedicated to her daughter she lost. I HIGHLY recommend this book, to any gender or age. What an adorable lesson and fun tale. Same with her last book "Lollipop Luvable." Two must have books!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy BAdorable. Adorable. Adorable. We love this and all the books from this author. Amazing!

Tsunami .....Pastrami, a complicated conversation, demonstrates that the art of listening and communicating can be quite challenging especially when it involves a conversation between a mouse and a raccoon. In the story Mumbles, a petite mouse, has an enthusiastic attitude positive outlook, and sharing nature. Jumbles, a plump raccoon with a one-track mind, delights in his nocturnal conversations with his newly acquainted mouse. Words get jumbled and mumbled throughout the night. What is the moral of this tale? Are Mumbles and Jumbles communicating? You can be the judge of that!

About the Author Renee Pendleton Suchowiecky thinks words are great fun! This premise led her to write Tsunami.....Pastrami, a story of the challenges of communication. Her other works are Lollipop and Lovable, a tale of two best friends who go around town being 'good-deed' dogs, and Love Letters to Nicole, a personal journal that chronicles her grief after the death of her 15 year old daughter. Suchowiecky enjoyed 16 years of learning from her high school, middle school and elementary school students. A native of New Orleans, she lived 30 plus years in Houston, Texas before moving to Los Angeles to be with her daughter, son-in-law and three beautiful grandchildren. Exploring California and traveling with her husband of 36 years give her great pleasure.
