George Hayduke : Up Yours before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Up Yours:

makes up for some awesome operation pranks. For example, one of them is called LURD: Long-range Urine Release Device. This box, when opened literally floods the poor schmuck mark in stale weeks-old urine when constructed out of cardboard. The box can be flipped around, and shipped via mail, and it would still work great. It is a trick I got up my sleeve. It is pure genius! The book teaches you how to make your own out of good old cardboard. Thanks Mister Hayduke for giving me this info; if anybody ever screws with me again, they will be in for a pissy surprise.
