From ACTA Publications : Veil of Veronica before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Veil of Veronica:

ZarskyI first heard this recording when I was in the seminary 30 years ago. The rector made a copy of the tape for me, which I still have. Over that time, I have listened too, and shared it with friends, too many times to keep track. The recording I have is on tape, and was not copied very well either, so I have been searching for a replacement all these years, with no luck. I was completely shocked to find it here on and ordered it without hesitation, it's that funny. As a priest myself, I've known priests like Frs. Stagnant, Teflon, and Cope, which just adds to the laughs. While it is so hard to pick a favorite skit, the mass times skid gets to me every time, if for no other reason that the reality that differed mass times do, in fact, often have different characteristics. The most amazing part of this recoding, even though this was recorded over 30 years ago, is that it shows how little parish life has changed. Perhaps it's that we as humans, despite what we may think, really don't change all that much. Another one of Gods little gifts I would say. So be sure to join us next time when we hear Fr. Stagnant say, "it's just a figure of speech". (Buy the CD and you'll understand)

ACTA Publications re-releases the hilarious skit Veil of Veronica, a classic comedy that focuses on the foibles and absurdities of the quintessential post-Vatican II Catholic parish. 1 CD.
