I want more!By CustomerI really like this book! You can tell the author put a lot of work into it. The rhymes all work well and the illustrations go with the text, adding a funny extra dimension. If I had to describe it in one word, I'd say: CHEEKY. There are a few curse words, but they don't diminish the text at all. Some of the poems are a bit macabre, but also darkly funny and interesting. Nothing in this book is serious or melancholy at all! My only regret is that there isn't more of the book. When I got to the end, I was very sad; even though I know I can reread it quickly, I still wish there was more to it. That's why I gave it 4 stars instead of 5. I actually hate to give it 4 stars, but I wanted to be fair, and to be honest, I was a little disappointed that it wasn't longer. I would gladly read more poems like the ones in this book! Alas, I suppose I shall just have to wait for Book Two!!

Daft doggerel and ridiculous rhyme. Silly verse for grown-ups, complete with black and white illustrations.
