You have a knack with words and you deliver these 'Road Stories,' so well with your deliberate wit and humor! One of my favorites is the chapter entitled 'Vending Machine Run For Buddy.' I won't give away the plot, but this one had me bowled over with laughter and I couldn't wait to share it with others! Wishing you much success on your current tour with the 'Legends of Pool,' and even moreso, your NEXT BOOK! :)0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. don't recommend for anyone over eight years oldBy ErnieA big disapointment, don't recommend for anyone over eight years old!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Mark Cantrill, travelled and managed pool tours, exhibitions, challenge matches and clinics with these World Champions of the game, and while getting to know them personally, formed lifelong friendships! Raw, funny and to the point, this book will certainly leave you laughing, while giving you an inside glimpse of life on the road with the Legends and Champions Pool Tour, and the World Champions behind them!

About the Author Mark (T-Wheels) Cantrill, was born in 1970 and raised in West Yorkshire, England. From a working class family, he learned that 'there is nothing simply handed to you,' and you have to work for everything you get. He moved to the U.S.A. in 1991 and explored the country. He has lived in L.A., Northern California—including the San Francisco Bay area and West Palm Beach, Florida. Mark has been successful in multiple career moves including promotions for multiple cable TV companies, Real Estate Finance and as a Marketing Consultant, before finding a niche market in sports management and the promotion of Professional Pool and Billiards. Mark now lives in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona with his wife Jessica, and stepson Dason. He resides just three miles from his son and daughter, Brad and Maddy, from his first marriage. Mark continues to be an innovator in promoting Professional pool to the masses and to small towns all across the U.S.A., and looks to expand with even more exciting and fun events, as he moves forward with the 'Legends and Champions Pool Tour' brand and future products. Perhaps another book may be in store!
