

found myself telling the jokes to friends and then telling them about the book, so I decided I should write this review and let everyone know that this is a very funny book. I open it up everyday now and read a few jokes to get a good laugh. What will I do when I'm finished? I guess I'll have to get another one of Sandy's other funny books. Great job Sandy. Thank you, for all of the laughs that I've had and will have from your book! I highly recommend this book to everyone that enjoys a good joke. As Sandy says on the cover..."You will laugh." I give this book a very solid 5 out of 5 STARS! Talbot Perry Simons - Guinness World Records® most awarded filmmaker for the movie "Still the Drums" 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Rozelman's small doses of "laughter" medicine cures all! By Robin J. Sacks "Sandy Rozelman has accomplished brilliance by capturing the laughter that comes into our lives everyday, but quickly goes away. She reminds us not only that laughter is the best medicine, but that the medicine can be taken in small doses, at any time of the day! As Sandy recounts, 'Laugh a little each day. It's better than chicken soup. At least that's what the chickens say.' 'WHO SAID JEWS AREN'T FUNNY' makes a great gift. This book belongs in every Jewish home!" - Robin Sacks, Author of Get Off My Bus

OY VEY!!! My children think I'm Meshugana so before I leave this world I need to prove them wrong. For over 20 years I have collected humorous stories and jokes. My kids would probably just throw them all away after I'm gone. But . . . if I put them in a book, they wouldn't think I was so Meshugana after all. Right? So, here's my second book, ""Who Said Jews Aren't Funny? a compilation of the best of the best of the best Jewish humor I have amassed. This book makes a great gift and belongs in every Jewish home. My first book, ""You're Gonna Laugh"", published in 2008 is a compilation of general humor. And watch for Politics Is A Joke coming out soon.

About the Author Sandy Rozelman, the author of "Who Said Jews Aren't Funny?" is a wife, mother of three, grandmother of four, at the beck and call to one dog and two cats, friend, author, facilitator for a wellness support group, collector of frogs (notice frog on cover of my book), maker of chocolate candy, knitter for charity, volunteer, puzzle and game lover, poet, singer and retired.