The humor is listed towards the English channel. My favorite. 'I told you we would not be the only ones out here'. Thanks, Mike from a Maine USA expat Brit sailor. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A nice recap of times past By Hall Palmer As a long time fan of Mike Peyton's work I found very little new in this volume in the sense of new art work but it was a good purchase nonetheless for the context and history it provides of his sailing life and unique sense of the ironic and absurd aspects of our shared addiction to the world of sailing and cruising in small boats. I hope he does very well with it. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Sam H. Moore as described, promptly shipped

Mike Peyton drew his first cartoon in 1942. At the time he was interned in a German prisoner of war camp, and the cartoon appeared in a newspaper run by and for his fellow prisoners. Seventy years later, he has only recently stopped providing cartoons for the Yachting Monthly Confessional column for which he has become so well loved in recent decades. Having provided illustrations for magazines as varied as the Church of England Times and Corsetry Underwear, Mike became best known for cartoons relating to his first love - yachting (and as he will happily point out, he had a boat before he had a car). To celebrate his career, Adlard Coles Nautical presents this hilarious retrospective of the very best of Mike's cartoons from the last eight decades, a collection that will bring a smile to the face of even the most rain-sodden sailor stuck in his marina berth for another week supposedly in summer. When yachting journalist Dick Durham wrote Mike's biography, he called Mike 'the world's greatest yachting cartoonist' and this book shows why. Witty, wise and well-executed, Mike's lively, perceptive and highly distinctive cartoons will speak to anyone who has ever taken to the water.

His love of sailing oozes through every drawing. Practical Boat Owner Is it funny? Yes, and perceptive. East Coast Sailing Mike's lively, perceptive and highly distinctive cartoons will speak to anyone who has ever taken to the water. Yachting Life Explorers of East Anglian creeks will feel particularly at home, these being Mike's own waters, but many of us will relate to the situations gleefully illustrated. Canoeist Witty, wise and technically very well drawn, the cartoons chosen for this book are the favourites of sailing greats such as the solo circumnavigator Sir Robin Knox-Johnston, the yachtsman and comedian Griff Rhys Jones, and Yachting Monthly's own seagoing sage, Tom Cunliffe. Yachting Monthly Mike Peyton has been called 'the greatest yachting cartoonist' and this book shows why: perceptive, witty and highly distinctive cartoons speak to anyone who has ever taken to the water. Little Ship If you can't manage to chuckle and guffaw your way through this little gem at least twice, you are definitely in need of treatment. Cruising Association Magazine About the Author Mike Peyton is Britain's best loved nautical cartoonist - and a sailor himself. For years he has made his mark, contributing witty and poignantly funny cartoons to the yachting and boating press all over the world, poking fun at seafarers of all types and capturing in his distinctive cartoon style their often eccentric and idiosyncratic ways. Adlard Coles Nautical has published three other books by Mike Peyton: Out of Our Depth, Ever Wonder Why We Do It? and Mike Peyton's Floating Assets.
