Some of the topics are a little dated for a contemporary audience - otherwise I doubt much has changed, still as sharp and relevant as ever.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Side splittingBy tinaLaughed and laughed!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. HystericalBy ?Lovely listening to this amazing treasure, truly in my element. with the original cast via Audible n only cost me just over £5 which is wonderful cos paying upfront for the year

For the first time in one audio collection, all sixteen Yes Minister radio episodes plus six further TV episodes, fourteen Yes Prime Minister episodes and two bonus sketches. Between 1980 and 1988 on BBC television and radio, the exploits of the Rt Hon Jim Hacker MP (Paul Eddington) - later Prime Minister - kept the British nation enthralled.

Helped - and hampered - by his diligent Permanent Secretary Sir Humphrey Appleby (Nigel Hawthorne) and his Principle Private Secretary Bernard Woolley (Derek Fowlds), Hacker and his department became synonymous with government bureaucracy and administrative double dealing. Presented here, for the first time in one collection, are the complete radio series of Yes Minister and the complete BBC television soundtracks of Yes Prime Minister. Also included are six TV soundtracks of Yes Minister and two special bonus mini-episodes: The PM's Plan, recorded in 1984 with Margaret Thatcher as herself, and a special segment created for The Funny Side of Christmas in 1982. 20 CDs. 18 hrs 28 mins.
