Sandy Rozelman : You're Gonna Laugh before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised You're Gonna Laugh:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. You're Gonna Laugh made me laugh a lot.By Richard FishmanI read about 4 pages of "Gonna Laugh" every time before going to bed. What a pleasant way to end the day.... these stories are really historical..... some clean, some pretty raunchy, but almost every one of them has a good 'kick' to the funny bone... would make a great gift cuz people would actually read it... not like plodding through a long novel. I get some good emails at work but Sandy Rozelman has definitely put together the highlight reel of funny emails.

A judge asks the prisoner, What are you charged with? Doing my Christmas shopping early, he replied. That's no offense. How early were you doing this shopping? Before the store opened. People are more violently opposed to fur than they are to leather because it's safer to harass rich women than motorcycle gangs. The mother of three unruly young boys was asked whether or not she'd have children if she could do it all over again. Sure, she replied, just not the same ones. Prosecutor: Did you kill the victim? Defendant: No, I did not. Prosecutor: Do you know what the penalties are for perjury? Defendant: Yes, I do. And they're a lot better than the penalty for murder. A Polish immigrant went to the DMV to apply for a driver's license. First, of course, he had to take an eyesight test. The optician showed him a card with the letters: C Z W I X N O S T A C Z Can you read this? the optician asked. Read it? the Polish guy replied, I know the guy. Birthdays are good for you: The more you have, the longer you live. The author, Sandy Rozelman, is happy to share her love of humor with you.

About the Author I have a very eclectic work history ranging from retail sales to executive secretarial and from dental assistant to bookkeeping and manager of a print shop...and most recently, a Nanny. Years ago I was a volunteer teacher's assistant and tutor and edited the Year Book at my children's Jr. High School for two years. Currently my most rewarding experience is volunteering at a nursing home as part of a singing group where we entertain the residents once a week. I have an interesting collection of frog figurines from all over the world. In my spare time I do puzzles and play games. Over the years I wrote a number of personal poems that I bound into a book. I also created a book of family recipes for my children. I've always found that I am attracted to happy people and things that make me laugh; Hence, this Joke Book. To me a sense of humor is a person's most attractive quality. I have also found that laughter has helped me to cope with the challenges of Fibromyalgia. Compiling this book has been both therapeutic and fun. Laughter is the best medicine is not just a trite cliché. ©
